From just a day
to 18 months

HITACHI
Inspire the Next

From short term contracts to airport trips, there are lots of reasons why you might need a car or van for a day or two, a couple of weeks or even a few months.

You could decide to operate a small pool fleet but how long will they sit idle whilst still costing the business money? Will you have the right vehicle on hand, when and where you need it most? Even if you do, who will make sure it is sanitised and safe to drive?

 Hitachi Capital (UK) PLC, Vehicle Solutions

Sound Familiar?

There's a new starter with a probation period

You've won a new contract, but it's only for six months

A contractor needs a particular type of van for a few days

An employee has their own car, but doesn't have the right insurance

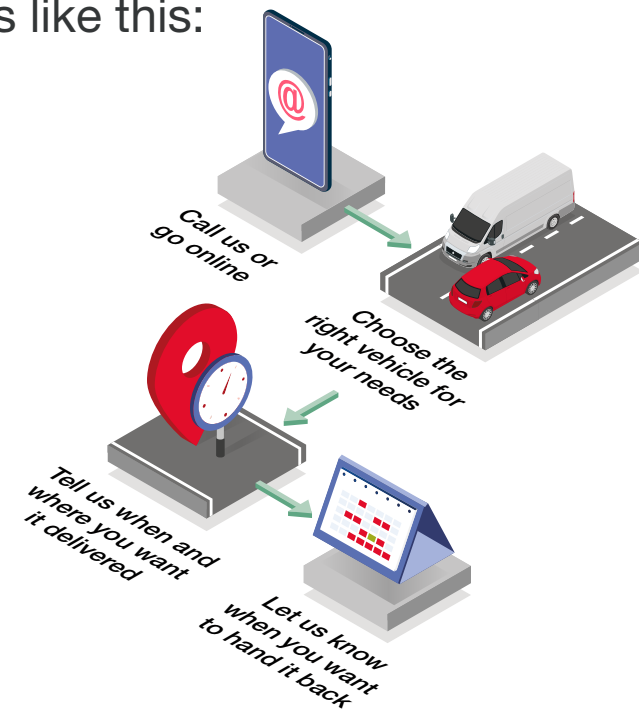

A fleet vehicle is off the road, but you're not sure for how long

Hire vehicles when you need them Give them back when you don't

To make things even easier, you'll want to avoid any unnecessary administration and need to know that vehicles can be collected or delivered anywhere in the UK, all sanitised, safety checked and ready to drive.

RentAbility from Hitachi Capital Vehicle Solutions does all this and more. Vehicles are available from one day to 18 months and everything in between.

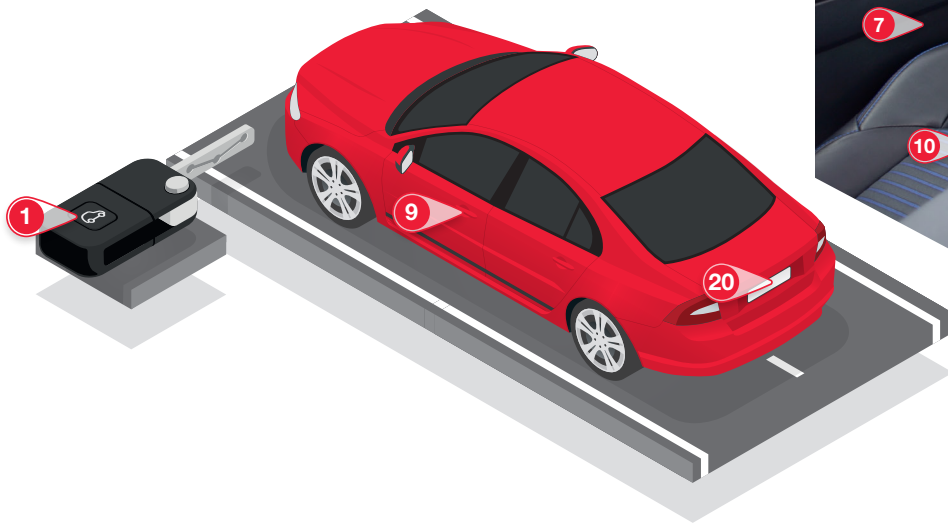

It works like this:

! We've got 13 standard car classes, 3 standard van classes and specialist vehicles available on request

Keeping it Simple Saves Time and Money

Whether it's days, months, or years, letting Hitachi Capital Vehicle Solutions manage all your vehicle requirements is not only simpler and more efficient, it could generate some significant savings.

Fully optimising your fleet requires complete transparency and a holistic view of your mobility requirements and spend. Many companies find this difficult to achieve but, with one supplier looking after all your needs, from daily rental through to multi-year contract hire of cars and commercial vehicles, you'll be able to increase efficiency, decrease cost and better manage fleet related risks.

Here are just a few of the reasons to choose a single supplier solution:

- | Increased operational control and efficiency
- | Minimised downtime with streamlined rental management
- | A holistic view of all fleet related costs
- | Total transparency both on and off the road
- | Reduced rental costs by off-hiring at the earliest opportunity
- | Less internal administration and management time
- | A smoother, more efficient, driver experience

Why Hitachi Capital Vehicle Solutions?

From just a few cars and vans, through to a large mixed fleet including commercial vehicles and specialist equipment, the service we offer is based on your specific needs. This means:

---

By listening carefully to your needs, aims and objectives we can create mobility solutions that meet your current operational requirements without compromising longer term strategic goals.

With a flexible suite of services designed to deliver clarity, understanding and control, we'll help you see beyond the headline rates to understand your true whole life costs.

As the first leasing company to offer pure EVs within our medium-term rental fleet, we help businesses reduce their environmental impact through the intelligent decarbonisation of business mobility.

Customers Often Ask

Will you have the vehicles I need for immediate hire?

We have access to over 100,000 vehicles in 16 standard classes and access to an extensive range of specialist vehicles on request.

Do you cover the entire UK?

Our UK-wide network has a wide range of vehicles available for immediate hire in around 450 locations.

How quickly can I get a car or van delivered?

For accident or breakdowns, vehicles can be delivered within 8 hours. Otherwise, it's 24-48 hours for standard vehicles and 5 days for EVs. You can also arrange collection from the nearest branch.

Is there a quality guarantee?

All our vehicles are fully serviced and maintained and come complete with UK-wide breakdown cover.

Are the vehicles fully sanitised?

To create a safer working environment for your employees, every vehicle is fully cleaned and sanitised between every rental.

Will each rental result in extra invoices to process?

We can consolidate your rental invoices to make it easier and more efficient for you to manage.

Can I cut the contract short, or extend it if necessary?

Rentability vehicles can be returned with just 24 hours notice and we will simply charge the relevant daily hire rate. Rentability+ vehicles need to pass their minimum rental period and can then be returned at any time.

Is there a mileage limit?

Every vehicle comes with a mileage allowance of 2,800 per 28-day period. Additional mileage can be applied at 30p per mile over the standard mileage allowance.
